Trying the Wrongful Death Case in New York

Buffalo, New York, March 2004

In March 2004 Bill Long was invited to participate in the National Business Institute's continuing education program on the topic "Trying the Wrongful Death Case in New York". The lecture offered both the plaintiff and defense perspective of the special challenges which a litigator faces in prosecuting or defending claims involving catastrophic injuries which lead to the death of a plaintiff. The lecture was attended by attorneys of all experience levels in fulfillment of their continuing legal education credits as required by the New York State Bar Association. The presentation took place in Buffalo, New York.
